1999...
AND THE WORLD IS IN CHAOS!

The attack came without warning, and within a few days the Earth's inhabitants found themselves desperately fighting for their lives against an insidious force from outer space. Not a single measure was spared — nuclear blasts, germ warfare, tactics that sent the Earth's ecosystem raging out of control — but no matter what they did, the armies of Earth were no match for the invaders. Survivors of the worldwide holocaust fled to underground shelters as city after city was mowed down by the armored biobeasts of what came to be known as Godkaiser Hell's Steelmask Force.

Only a man by the name of Professor Kabuto had predicted and prepared for the invasion. After years of research and experiments, the Professor had developed this one weapon capable of destroying the invaders: a special suit of bio-armor that, with the help of the Professor's son Koji, becomes the super warrior known as Mazinger-Z.

It's up to you to harness Mazinger-Z's awesome power and defeat Hell's army of vicious biobeasts. In 1999, the human race depends on you for its survival!

At the Title screen you can choose to begin the game right away, or customize the game in the Options screen. Press the D-Button up or down to select the feature you want, then press the Start Button.

Options

Use this menu to change game settings or to check out some of the game features. Select the option you want by pressing the D-Button up or down, then change the option by pressing the D-Button left or right.

Difficulty: Choose between a Normal or Hard game. The more difficult the game, the more enemies you’ll have to battle.

Sound Test: Listen to any of the background music from the game. Press the D-Button left or right to change the number of the music track, then press Button C to hear the track.
SE: Listen to any of the sound effects used in the game. As with the Sound Test, press the D-Button left or right to change the effect number, then press Button C to hear the sound.

Exit: Brings you back to the Title screen when you press any button. You can also press the Start Button at any time to return to the Title screen.

Mazinger-Z’s Moves

You’ll start each stage by taking on waves of Steelmask soldiers. Once you’ve disposed of them, you’ll run into a much BIGGER problem: the Round Boss. Mazinger-Z can change size, but it takes a little time. In the meantime, the Boss will be grabbing at you or trying to stomp you like a bug! There aren’t many bugs armed with sharp swords, however, and if you’re fast enough, you can discourage the Boss until you reach the Boss Screen and are ready to see it eye to… whatever.

On Game Screens

Special Attack: A
Press Button A for a whirling, slashing attack that devastates your enemies! This move drains energy from your Life Gauge, and you won’t be able to perform it if your energy level is too low.

Sword Attack: B
Press Button B repeatedly for a series of attacks that vary depending on how close you are to the enemy. Mazinger-Z starts with a vertical and horizontal slice, and finishes up with the following:
- Close: Throw
- Middle: Kick
- Distant: Stab

Wall of Steel: B Repeatedly
Press Button B quickly and repeatedly for a rapid attack that’s guaranteed to overwhelm your opponent!

Jump-Slice: C → B
Press Button C to jump, then press Button B to slice downward from mid-air.

Downward Stab: C → Down + B
Press Button C to jump, and in the middle of the jump, press Button B while pressing the D-Button down. This is a great way to poke enemies who are directly beneath you.
Somersault Jump:  $+$ + $C$

Press the D-Button left or right to guide the direction of your jump.

Jump-Kick:  $+$ + $C$ $\rightarrow$ $B$

This is good for stunning an enemy in mid-air.

Dash:  $+$ TWICE in the same direction

Press the D-Button twice left or twice right, and Mazinger-Z will dash across the screen. If you don't give another command, Mazinger-Z will keep on running as long as you are pressing the D-Button. Use the Dash in conjunction with the attack and jump buttons for the following:

Charge:  Dash $\rightarrow$ $B$

Combine a dash with a sword cut for extra impact!

Long Jump:  Dash + $C$

Good for clearing long drops or covering large distances in a hurry!

Spinning Blade:  Dash + $C$ $\rightarrow$ $B$

Mow down your enemies with this whirlwind attack!

On Boss Screens

Now you and the Round Boss are ready to duel on your own terms! With your change in size, your fighting techniques have changed a little as well.

Sword Attack:  $B$

Mazinger-Z hammers his opponents with a simple vertical blow. You can use the D-Button to guide his sword in the following moves:

Upward Slash:  $+$ UP + $B$

While your opponent is leaping over your head, use this move to hit him from underneath!

Sideways Slash:  $+$ AWAY FROM OPPONENT + $B$

Great for cutting through an enemy's guard, and right into his midsection!
Kneecapper:

+ DOWN + B

Press the D-Button down to duck, and press Button B to attack.

Downward Stab:

+ DOWN AND AWAY FROM OPPONENT + B

Press the D-Button down to duck, and away from your opponent to stab.

Guard:

A

Press Button A to guard against your opponent's attacks. Press Button A and the D-Button down at the same time to duck down and guard your legs. Bear in mind that the guard position will only lessen the damage from strong attacks.

Vertical Jump:

C

Jump to evade enemy blows, or slash down from above by pressing Button B while in mid-air.

Somersault Jump:

+ C

Press the D-button left or right to guide your jump, and press Button C to somersault through the air. From mid-air, use the D-Button and Button B for the following:

Jump/Upward Slash:

C ➔ + UP + B

Jump/Forward Stab:

C ➔ + AWAY FROM OPPONENT + B

Round 1: Tokyo
The sun sets over Tokyo, and the flames from its burning skyscrapers light up the night. You'll face the first of your foes, Garada K7, in the middle of a city street.

Round 2: India
The unbalanced ecosystem has turned India into a winter wasteland. You'll face a number of surprising foes in the catacombs before you and "Slughead" battle it out in an abandoned temple.

- Gold Dust: Gives you a 1,000-point bonus.
- Crystal: Awards you 5,000 points.
Round 3: Europe

Some of the world’s finest Monuments lie buried beneath acres of sand and a burning sun. In Spain you’ll face the Dino-Beast — you’ll have to be fast on your feet to beat his vicious, elusive ramming attacks!

Round 4: New York

New York City has changed from a concrete jungle to a jungle of a different sort. Watch your footing as you battle the bugs and the Bug-Busters — one step could be fatal! Beneath clouds of smog you’ll battle the biobeast known as Buster Claw.

Round 5: Egypt

Among ruins both old and new, you’ll meet a foe who will seem horribly familiar...

Round 6: The Ultimate Battle

It’s not over yet! Godkaiser Hell has prepared the ultimate challenge for you, and new enemies wait in the shadows to destroy you! Good luck!

Settling the Score

You receive points for each enemy you defeat and certain items you pick up. After you defeat a Boss, you’ll receive points for the amount of power remaining on Mazinger-Z’s Life Gauge at the end of the battle. If you managed to destroy your opponent without suffering any damage at all, you’ll receive an extra bonus!

Game Over/Continue

The game ends when you run out of Chances. You’ll start out with two opportunities to continue your battle at the beginning of the stage you left off. You will also retain your score. Press the Start Button before the timer runs out to go back into battle.

Note: If the game ended while you were battling a Boss, you will return to that Boss screen.

Battle Tactics

• Don’t just rush in and start hacking away at your enemies. Instead, watch them closely — each has a particular style of attack and a weak spot. This is particularly true of the Bosses.

• Practice your leaping attacks and your Dash techniques. You’ll need these skills for later.
